Project Methodology

The methodology identified to assist Croatia, Greece, and Sweden in strengthening the resilience of their island economies is based on the OECD Territorial Review methodology.

The project will advance for each beneficiary country through the following steps.

- Identification of key indicators for island development
- Data collection and analysis
- Experimental estimation of insularity costs
- Analysis of Island-specific factors that impact on islands
- Study visits and interviews
- Case studies
- Capacity building seminars for peer-learning
- Reports with assessment of strategies policies and multi-level governance
- Policy recommendations
- Policy action plan
- Policy toolkit
- Pilot policy implementation
